TODAY'S PROGRAM

Milt Piippenger has been a member of our club since September 2007, sponsored by Marv Fisher. He was the Interim Superintendent for Maize Schools but is now "retired". Milt and his wife, Maribeth, went with a group on a mission trip to China last summer. He will share about his trip at today's meeting.

KINDERGARTEN BOOK DELIVERY

Lawrence Elementary Library
10:00 a.m. ~ April 8, 2010

The personalized books for the Kindergarteners are now in. DeAnn Sullivan would like to have a few Rotarians to go along to hand out the books. It shouldn't take too long – maybe 30 minutes. Dipper (the yellow star costume) will be available to help. Please sign up at the meeting if you are available to help.

HOME FIRESIDE HOSTS NEEDED

We need at least 4 more volunteers to host Home Fireside meetings on an evening of their choice during the week of March 29th. If interested, e-mail Diane or sign up at the meeting.

SPREAD THE WORD:

- ❖ GSE (non-Rotarian) Team Members needed to go to Denmark. Applications are due March 31 and can be downloaded by accessing the Group Study Exchange section of the district web site at www.rotary5690.org.
- ❖ High School Scholarship applications being taken. If you know of a west side senior that will be attending a Kansas college, university or trade school, have them apply. The application is available on our club website: rotarywestwichita.org, under Service Foundation, click Scholarship. Our two west-side Rotary clubs will provide three $1,000 scholarships. Winners will be determined by our Vocational Service committee. Application deadline is April 3.
- ❖ Several partial scholarships will be granted to area high school students to attend RYLA (a Rotary Youth Leadership camp) this summer. They will be awarded based on first come first serve.

Our Interact students and sponsors leave for Panama this Friday, March 12th! They will be taking supplies to deliver to the schools and have several workdays at the schools planned.
