Interact News

Mike Suellentrop reports: "The Interact Club had a car wash yesterday. They raised around $350 and had a great time. Kari Rezac [Interact member] stole the show in the duck suit with her cartwheels and mad dancing skills. Didn't cause too many accidents but did manage to pull some cars in! Paul Blissett even donned the duck suit."

Their next fundraiser will be a garage sale next week. They are asking our west side Rotarians to donate non-clothing items for the sale. So start pulling out items from your home that you are ready to get rid of. Details to follow.

Mike is asking Committee Chairs to keep the Interact Club informed of projects/activities that the students can participate in. This will serve two purposes - It will allow our Interact students to participate in local service projects without needing to go out search for projects or develop new ones. Secondly, it will give our Interact Club members a chance to "interact" with you, our Rotarians who sponsor and support our Interact club. At this time Mike would like each of you to email him with information on any projects or activities that you have coming up in September and October. Please explain what the project is about and give details such as date and time and any other pertinent facts that you think would be beneficial.

HungerPlus

Our annual HungerPlus meeting has been moved this year from the spring to the fall, so it is just around the corner! It will be held on Tuesday, October 13, during our regular meeting time at Ascension Lutheran Church. Please consider making a soup or dessert for the meeting. Sign-ups will start soon!
